PRESS RELEASE

Government of Papua New Guinea and Bilderberg Investment Group Sign Historic €600 Billion MOU

Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea — 27 October 2025

The Government of Papua New Guinea (PNG) and the Bilderberg Investment Group have officially signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) valued at €600 billion to accelerate the nation's development agenda. This historic agreement marks one of the largest private investment commitments ever made in the Pacific region, setting the stage for transformative growth and modernization.

The MOU was signed in Port Moresby by Hon. Sir Ano Pala, KBE CMG ISO LLB MP, Minister for National Planning, on behalf of the Government of Papua New Guinea, and Mr. Denis Gigil Ahnakot, Chairman & Beneficial Owner of Bilderberg Investment Group. The signing was witnessed by Hon. Peter Namea Isoaimo, MPA MP, Minister for Energy, alongside senior government officials and international delegates.

This partnership establishes a strategic framework to drive sustainable economic growth, infrastructure development, and social prosperity across key sectors. It aligns with the Medium Term Development Plan and the Marape Manifesto, reaffirming the Government's commitment to inclusive progress and innovation.

Bilderberg Investment Group will mobilize €600 billion over six (6) years to support projects in energy, transport, mining, housing, tourism, green technology, and social infrastructure, including the landmark AHNAKOT Smart City PNG and the National Government Housing Program of 30,000 units.

Both Parties commit to transparency and accountability under the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) framework. The Government will facilitate regulatory and administrative processes to ensure timely implementation, while Bilderberg Investment Group provides financial, technical, and managerial expertise.

> "This partnership represents a transformative chapter in our nation's history. It reinforces our Government's dedication to prosperity, employment, and opportunity for every Papua New Guinean."
